

A Capital Setting

In June 2009 prepare to get dressed up and enjoy the finest cultural and Rotary programme. Get set on your way to Birmingham brilliant. This will be one event that has certainly got us buzzing. Think you know Birmingham? Think again. The 100th Rotary International Convention at Birmingham, UK will offer you an opportunity to explore the history of a great country as you celebrate the centennial convention.

To start with, the House of Friendship will have Indian food courts. You will find the days getting longer. Birmingham will provide the perfect setting for the experience of your lifetime. The large shopping mall near the Convention Centre will allow you to explore the most luxurious way to shop in style. Shop till you drop.

If all the excitement leaves you wanting to set sail for tranquility take a tour to the fascinating birth place of William Shakespeare. This will be an extremely unique event giving insight into the fascinating history of the great man.

Enjoy a blend of English heritage and timeless European style in Birmingham. Combine this with great Rotary spirit, wit and an unquestionable devotion to service and you have captured the essence of Rotary over the past one hundred years!

birmingham
21-24 JUNE ENGLAND
2009 100TH ROTARY INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

Fly to Scotland. Spend memorable days seeing Edinburgh which is a tale of two cities. Whether you immerse yourself in one single place or have a tour all over UK, the choice is endless.

Birmingham has something for everyone. The Rotary International's Convention will be your place to meet people from over 200 countries. Your Rotary work becomes a pleasure here. The South Asian Breakfast will provide you another opportunity to meet the top brass of RI. Await for further announcements.

There are lots of truly wonderful places to go that are easily accessible from Birmingham. Historic market towns and picturesque villages set in breathtaking countryside are there for you to visit.

So, for an experience of your life, make sure that you register for the 100th Rotary International Convention. It's happening in Birmingham.

*Ashok Mahajan
Director, Rotary International*